

Who we are

At Service Canada, we bring Government of Canada services and benefits together in a single delivery network. We provide Canadians with one-stop, personalized service they can access however they choose - by phone at 1 800 O-Canada, on the Internet at www.servicecanada.gc.ca, or in person at Service Canada Centres across the country.

Our role in delivering the Common Experience Payment

Service Canada and Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada (AANDC) are jointly responsible for the Common Experience Payment (CEP) component of the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement. At Service Canada, we will accept your CEP applications in person at our Service Canada Centres, by mail, or through our outreach locations in local communities. Once we receive it, we will process your application as quickly as possible.

How you can help us process your claim quickly

To avoid delays in processing your application, please remember to:

- include your proper identity documents;
- list your full name, as well as all names you were known by at residential school(s);
- list all of the residential schools you lived in and when;
- include your complete mailing address, including the postal code; and
- sign your application.

Please note:

- If you have any questions about the application form, please contact us at 1-866-699-1742 for assistance. TTY users can reach us at 1-800-926-9105. Both numbers are toll free.
- If you do not complete your application in full, or if you forget to sign it, our processing of your application will be delayed.
- If you cannot provide an original or certified true copy of one of the documents required to verify a change of name, you may submit a guarantor declaration (see attached). For more information on using guarantor declarations to demonstrate a change of name, please contact us at 1-866-699-1742 (1-800-926-9105 for TTY users) or online at www.servicecanada.gc.ca or visit your local Service Canada Centre.
- If we need more documentation than what we ask for on the application form, we will contact you directly by phone or mail.

We will process your application as quickly as possible, and we will notify you within 60 days of our making a decision. For information about the status of your application, please contact us at 1-866-699-1742. TTY users can reach us at 1-800-926-9105. Both numbers are toll free.

How we make the payments

Former students who receive a Common Experience Payment will have the option of either receiving a cheque by mail or having the payment made by direct deposit (available in Canada only). Direct deposit is the fastest and most secure option, since we deposit the payment directly into your bank account. If you would like to take advantage of direct deposit, please provide your bank information in the appropriate area of the application form, or attach a "VOID" cheque.

Please note: Direct deposit is not available for Common Experience Payments issued to estates or personal representatives of former students.
